

Will you help to put Jesus in the hands of 1.4 million Kiwis at Easter 2018?

Have you noticed how Jesus' name is hardly mentioned in public media at Easter or Christmas anymore?

While the Christian message of hope is unchanging, the beliefs of our society are continuously changing, and the messages of media feed them.

In such a society, maintaining a visible presence is important because 'out of sight' equals 'out of mind'.

To preserve an awareness of Jesus at Easter it is proposed that the Hope Project be run every year. This would bring esteem to the name of Jesus, and if we work together is very achievable.

In 2014-2016 the first three national media efforts saw many lives being dramatically changed, and churches and individuals helped to engage conversations.

But what can I actually do?

Small conversations count. Consider asking your friends questions like, Did you get a booklet? What did you think? What do you mean by that? I agree with... Have you considered...? If they haven't read it — you could recommend that they do. And if they haven't got one — you could give them one.

Most-often, people come to faith as the result of a journey that involves many conversations. Conversations count!
